RHIEN:

It is indeed, and in our packed show tonight, we have a travel agency sketch, a train station travel centre sketch, a bank sketch and our first head to head discussion talking about how England got on in Euro 2016, but now for the news

Sied storms into the studio

SIED:

I'm just checking the equipment, won't take long

Now where was I, oh yes, Arriva have sorted out the ticket machine problems on the unstaffed stations, they removed the ticket machines

SIED:

I don't need that camera OPPS, Sorry

Picture on screen with voiceover

Wiggle TV would like to apologise for the loss of the sound and picture, normal service will be resumed as soon as possible due to a technical fault. Hang on, If there is a loss of sound then how come this voiceover is not affected

Sometime later

RHIEN:

A train operator has now solved the issue with driver only trains and its guards, they sacked the drivers and made them guard only trains

HARVEY:

Arriva have named all their new buses after the players of Leicester City Football Club, Arriva have since removed Kante's name after the bus was vandalised

Sticking with F1, Mercedes have got the new engine running and its British Driver was testing it during the Malaysian Grand Prix, mysteriously it went up in flames, after 40 laps, again!

RHIEN:

And finally Wayne Rooney had his plane diverted to East Midlands Airport, as he heard Nottingham Forest has a vacancy for a striker
