

Script - My Spoof version of Mastermind

Harvey: Good evening and welcome to Mastermind with Harvey Magnusson and with me tonight is Nina who is in the studio and her chosen subject is the poor air quality so Nina introduce your self

Nina: My Name is Nina, I'm a student and my subject is the poor air quality in India and China

Harvey: So Nina, you have 1 minute and 30 seconds on the subject of the poor air quality and Nina if you don't know the answer to the question then you must say pass, is that clear Nina

Nina: I understand

Harvey: Then we shall begin

Harvey: In Britain what city has the worst air quality on record?

Nina: What? I thought it was the poor air quality in India and China that I chosen

Harvey: Just answer the question Nina

Nina: Pass

Harvey: What Industry can produce the worst air quality in Europe?

Nina: Your question is on Europe this time

Harvey: Answer the question Nina

Nina: Please stick to the subject

Harvey: I am, so please answer

Nina: Pass

Harvey: In India what alert is the country in

Nina: Now that is more like it

Harvey: I need answer

Nina: Orange Alert

Harvey: No the correct answer was red alert

Nina: This is ridiculous, I know it was orange alert as I looked it up online

Harvey: Look Nina can you stop wasting time please

Nina: Ok

Harvey: In the UK what air pollution is produced by making wind turbines

Nina: Now you gone back to the UK again

Harvey: Nina I am reading the questions I have been given before the show so just answer the question and stop wasting time

Nina: Pass

Harvey: What has India done to...

The four beeps are heard (Post Production)

Harvey: I've started so I'll finish

Nina: What does those four beeps mean?

Harvey: That means it is the end of the round

Nina: Ok

Harvey: What has India done to compact poor air quality?

Nina: Take the worst polluting cars off the road

Harvey: Close but not quite, the correct answer was that the cars are rotated on an even numbered day and an odd numbered day

Harvey: So with three passes and two incorrect answers, Nina you finish with 0 points, the worst of the year

Nina: This is a ridiculous show, these questions are correct right?

Harvey: But these are the questions that I was given and I thought you went for poor air quality

Nina: I'd chosen the poor air quality in India and China

Harvey: But the questions are to do with the poor air quality in the world

Nina: So you're saying that my chosen subject was correct

Harvey: They are correct

Harvey: And that is all we have time for good night

(As the show ends, Nina Storms out of the studio) Returns to the Stooges Studio
