Starts in Travel Agent - weeks after the UK left the EU

LEE:

Can we book a holiday for Barcelona please?

JO:

We had a great time last year so we are going there again

RIK:

Are you sure you both want to travel to an EU Country? After all the UK has now left the EU

LEE:

I did hear about that the UK voted for Brexit but I thought that it should not affect our travel rights to visit an EU Country

RIK:

It does affect your travel rights, I believe you both need Visas to travel to an EU Country now

JO:

A Visa! We didn't think of that!

LEE:

Why do we both need Visas?

RIK:

I did tell you both the UK has left the EU, by the way what did you vote for anyway? It won't have made any difference through

LEE:

We both like travelling to EU Countries so we wanted to remain a member of the EU

RIK:

At present, this country is no longer a member of the EU

JO:

Great. So how do we get these Visas anyway?

RIK:

You will have to visit the Spanish Embassy to apply for Visas

LEE:

And where do we go to apply for the Visas?

RIK:

In London

JO:

London, but that's miles away, can we do it online?

RIK:

I'm sorry, it has to be done at the Embassy in London

LEE:

But isn't London the most congested city in the UK

RIK:

Why don't you both take the train?

JO:

You must be joking, the underground always goes on strike due to the row on the night tube

RIK:

London has buses, why don't you use them?

LEE:

But the buses are always packed with commuters

RIK:

But hasn't the London Mayor improved the buses

LEE:

No, still as bad as ever

RIK:

You could use the Boris bikes but it could take you a while.

JO:

Good, we don't mind cycling, but one thing, will our EU medical cards still be valid?

RIK:

Your EU medical cards are no longer valid since the UK is no longer part of the EU

LEE:

Great, so what will happen if we both have an accident in an EU country?

RIK:

It will cost you both more money and you may not be guaranteed to get a doctor that will speak your language. I can sell you some travel insurance but it's expensive now

JO:

Will our passports be valid or will we need British Passports

RIK:

Saddlery these passports are no longer valid

LEE:

But we only got these passports last month

RIK:

But these are EU passports and not British passports, so you will have to apply for new passports too

LEE:

Ok, we shall drop Spain and just book a holiday in
Scarborough instead
